U.S. Marshal Joseph Papili Emergency Planning for Active Shooter Incidents

Joseph Anthony Papili was sworn in on August 25, 2010 to be the United States Marshal for the District of Delaware

Previously, Joseph Papili was a twenty-four and a half year veteran of the Delaware State Police. Holding the rank of Major, he was the Special Operations Officer overseeing the Intelligence, Homeland Security, Homicide, Tactical, and other specialized units within the agency. He has been a member of the Executive Staff of the State Police since 1999. He received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware in 1983.

Special Agent Steve Shepherd, FBI "Maritime Terrorism and the Asymmetric Threat: Considerations for DELMARVA."

A Special Agent in the FBI's Baltimore Field Office, Steve serves as Assistant Team Leader on the tactical maritime team and team member on the WMD and hazmat programs, and is detailed to the Maryland Coordination and Analysis Center (MCAC) as Chief of the External Relations Branch, where he's tasked with enhancing continuity between state, local, & federal law enforcement and the private sector, through Intel sharing programs and integrated training platforms. Steve previously served as a program manager for the WMD Directorate at FBI HQ, developing WMD domestic training programs with federal, state and local First Responder agencies, events that focused on establishing liaison and enhancing joint agency response coordination and capability. Before his promotion to FBI Headquarters in 2006, Steve served on the U.S. Virgin Islands Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF) in St. Thomas, and served the FBI in New York City from 1998 - 2004 on the FBI-NYPD JTTF's Domestic Terrorism Response Squad.
